

Y9 online portfolio assessment (design)

Level	Descriptor	Example
0	The student does not reach a standard described by any of the descriptors below	No purpose stated or design idea presented
1–2	i. states one basic success criterion for a solution ii. presents one design idea iii. creates an incomplete planning drawing/diagram	The purpose of my portfolio is to ... The layout of my portfolio might be ... (simple diagram/picture included) I chose to create my portfolio using ...
3–4	i. states a few success criteria for the solution iii. states the key features of the chosen design. ii. presents more than one design idea.	As above plus: The portfolio should show The layout (shown below) allows the reader to Other ways of creating a portfolio I considered were.....
5–6	iii. presents the chosen design stating the key features	The layout of the portfolio should be an annotated diagram or picture with explanations of where links will take the reader. Explain why you chose the method of portfolio creation that you did.
7–8	i. develops a list of success criteria for the solution ii. presents feasible design ideas, using an appropriate medium(s) and outlines the key features or each	The purpose of the portfolio is clearly stated and the statement of what it should show should be a list of items and descriptions. The explanation of the choice of portfolio creation tool should also include the advantages of the methods not chosen.